

2017 Water Safety Instructor

If you're at least 16 years old and a proficient swimmer, you can become an American Red Cross Water Safety instructor. Learn to teach children and adults to swim, and give water safety presentations to kids and their parents. It's a fun and meaningful job that's in high demand.

Become certified to teach the following:

- Parent and Child Aquatics * Preschool Aquatics * Learn-to-Swim * Longfellow's WHALE Tales
- * Water safety courses and presentations

Fee: $250

Dates: Sundays November 19, 26 December 10, 17; PLUS online classtime at home (approximately 15 hours) and additional co-teaching time during swim lessons.

Times: 1-7pm

Where: Indoor Pool

Deadline: Monday November 13

Class is limited to 6 participants

Prerequisites:

Candidates must be able to swim 25 yards of front crawl, back crawl, breaststroke, elementary backstroke, side stroke and 15 yards of butterfly. (PLEASE NOTE: all strokes must be technically correct and in good form to be admitted to this class.) Candidates must also be able to maintain position on back for 1 minute in deep water (floating or sculling), be able to tread water for 1 minute.

All candidates must be 16 years of age by the last day of class, actively participate in all scheduled class sessions (NO make-up sessions will be offered, so please be sure to clear your schedule), score at least 80% on the written exam, successfully perform all practice teaching assignments and all written assignments.
