You must clear your schedule to attend every class/all class hours, as there will be no make-up sessions offered!

Congratulations on your decision to take the American Red Cross Lifeguarding course! The training you will receive will be demanding and will require a commitment of time, energy and effort from you. The rewards will be mental and physical conditioning as you become a true lifeguard professional.

*You will need to come to each class session rested, ready to go, and prepared for hard work as this is a very challenging course.

*Be sure to always bring extra towels, sweats, snacks, etc. for the duration as we will be in and out of the water.

There will be NO make--up sessions as it is too difficult to schedule them. You will need to clear your schedule to ensure that you are available to FULLY attend each class session.

Following are the American Red Cross prerequisites that each candidate needs to complete before being admitted into this Lifeguarding class. Should a candidate fail to complete these prerequisites, s/he will not be permitted to continue and must withdraw from the class.

1. Swim 300 yards continuously (no pauses or stops) demonstrating rhythmic breathing and a stabilizing propellant kick. Feet must stay off pool bottom.
 - a. Candidates may swim using the front crawl, breaststroke or a combination of both
 - b. Goggles may be used
2. Tread water for 2 consecutive minutes using only the legs.
 - a. Candidates should place their hands under their armpits or raise their hands out of water.
3. Complete the following timed event within 1 minute, 40 seconds:
 - a. Starting in the water, swim 20 yards; the face may be in or out of the water. Swim goggles are NOT allowed.
 - b. Surface dive, feet first or head-first, to a depth of 12 feet to retrieve a 10-pound object.
 - c. Return to the surface and swim 20 yards on the back to return to the starting point, with both hands holding/remaining on the object and keeping the face at the surface to be able to breath. Candidates may not swim the distance under water.
 - d. Exit the water and stand up without using the ladder.

*Please note that this class is a pass/fail program; the department will not issue refunds should the student fail to complete all requirements (after admittance into the class).
