

Swamp White Oak

Quercus bicolor

Height: 50' to 60'

Width: 50' to 60'

Minimum Terrace
Width Required: 72"

Hardiness Zone: 3 to 8

Crown: Pyramidal in youth, rounded, broad and open at maturity.

Foliage: Dark green above and gray green underneath, coarse texture. Autumn Foliage is yellow and brown to red in autumn.

Flowers: Cakins in clumps, male and female both branches.

Fruit: Acorns

Description: Moderate growth rate. Bark is grayish brown, flaky, coarse textured with deep fissures, and adds winter interest to the tree

Advantages: A quality large species tree that can be a long lived tree. It is storm tolerant, salt resistant and no serious disease or insect problems

Limitations: No serious disease or insect problems